Bad Weather Halts Supply Run to Quemoy

But Chinese Red Guns Continue To Hammer Shells into Island

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Bad weather kept Chinese Nationalist supply ships from trying to reach Quemoy today but didn't stop the Communist bombardment of the offshore island.

It was the second straight day that inclement weather in the Formosa Strait halted movement of ammunition and other supplies under U.S. naval escort to the beleaguered outpost.

In Taipei, sharp resentment was stirred by the proposal of Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.) that the United States persuade the Nationalists to withdraw from the Quemoy and Matsu islands during the projected U.S. diplomatic talks with Red China.

An official of Cabinet rank who would not be quoted by name said, "We'll never abandon Quemoy and Matsu. No matter what happens, we'll hold on and fight for them. We've made our position clear time and again and it's unchangeable."

The Nationalists regard the offshore islands as jumpoff points for the invasion they say they will launch someday to retake the mainland. Giving up the islands would imply giving up the dream of reconquest.

Red artillery opened against the Quemoy at midnight and by 9:20 a.m. had battered them with 4,318 shells, the Nationalist Defense Ministry said. The fire landed in short but savage barrages on Quemoy, Little Quemoy and the Tatan islets.

The heaviest bombardment was trained on Quemoy's Satao beach, the island's best landing point. No supplies are known to have reached the besieged island since Red shells blew up an ammunition ship on the beach Monday.

The Defense Ministry refused to confirm or deny reports that supplies were being parachuted to the islands at night.

The U.S. 7th Fleet, which has been bolstered by the arrival of a third cruiser, the Los Angeles, to join the Columbus and Vice Adm. Wall M. Beakley's flagship, the Helena.

(Meanwhile, the Red Chinese charged that a U.S. Navy plane violated the air space over its territorial waters today.)

"This is a criminal act seriously infringing upon China's sovereignty and a deliberate war provocation," a Peiping radio broadcast said.

Quoting a Foreign Ministry statement, the radio said: "Following the intrusion by American warships into China's territorial waters twice on Sept. 7 and 8, U.S. military planes have again intruded into China's territorial air."

Last week, Red China unilaterally moved its sea borders out from the generally recognized 3-mile limit to 12 miles. U.S. warships escorting Nationalist convoys to beleaguered Quemoy have ignored the new 12-mile limit but have stayed 3-miles out.

Columbus Laundry Fire Showers Area

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A $130,000 laundry fire showered sparks over the downtown business district late Tuesday.

The blaze at the New Method Laundry was under control an hour after the first alarm was sounded. No one was injured.

The fire, centered in the rear of the second and third floors of the three-story brick building, sent flames leaping 100 feet into the air.

Laundry employees said the third floor was used for the marking of laundry which then is sent to the second floor. The third floor roof in the rear was destroyed and part of the second floor collapsed. Flames also reached the first floor.

Police Make Like Tarzan

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—The call of the wild came Tuesday to Chi-Chi and he answered it.

The call then came to the police. They answered too.

The result was a hectic rooftop chase in the steel and concrete jungle of the downtown town area.

Chi-Chi, a monkey, escaped from a local pet shop.

He started acrobatics on top of a bank building, then entered a coat company, setting some 25 women to screaming. Their squeals apparently confused Chi-Chi, because he soon fell prey to a police net.

Democrats Chalk More Gains in Elections Tuesday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Democrats, turning out in record numbers, posted major voting gains in Tuesday's 10-state primary elections.

The party upsurge stood out particularly in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Utah. It came on the heels of Democratic victories in Maine on Monday.

The strength of the Democratic turnout featured what was otherwise true-to-form voting in the year's last big series of primary contests for Congress and governor.

Hot party contests may have played a big part in getting out the Democratic voters.

In Wisconsin, Democrats topped the combined GOP vote for the first time in this century. An unprecedented turnout in the cities, particularly Milwaukee, rolled up the Democratic total. Rural Wisconsin still favored the Republicans.

Utah Democrats displayed unprecedented strength in nominating Frank E. Moss to oppose veteran Republican Sen. Arthur V. Watkins.

And in Minnesota the Democrats rolled up substantially bigger votes than the Republicans in almost all contests. The size of the Democratic turnout poses a threat to the Republican Senate seat held by Edward Thye.

The Democratic nominee to oppose Thye is Rep. Eugene McCarthy, 42-year-old congressman.

Generally, the established political pattern prevailed as Republicans and Democrats tapped their candidates Tuesday in Florida, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Arizona, Colorado, Utah and Washington.

These were the major results:

1. Sen. Spessard Holland defeated former Sen. Claude Pepper in the 58-year-old liberal's bid for a return to the U.S. Senate in the Florida Democratic primary, equivalent to election in that state. Near-complete returns gave Holland, a conservative, a victory margin of more than 80,000 votes. Pepper blamed his defeat on the school segregation issue which found Holland advocating a stronger fight against integration.

2. Gov. Ernest McFarland of Arizona was en route to clearing the first hurdle in his attempt to return to the Senate by rolling up an early 2-1 lead over Democratic National Committeeman Stephen Langmade. McFarland's November opponent would be Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater, the man who ousted him in 1952. Goldwater was renominated without opposition.

3. Two senators — Arthur Watkins (R-Utah) and William Proxmire (D-Wis)—handily beat back intraparty challenges but may be faced with serious trouble in November because of heavy vote totals polled by the opposition parties in their primaries. Watkins will be pitted against Democrat Frank E. Moss and former Gov. J. Bracken Lee, running as an independent. Proxmire, who was named to GOP Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's seat in a special election last year, will seek a six-year term against Roland E. Steinle, nominated without opposition by the Republicans.

4. Rep. Coya Knutson (D-Minn), the lady legislator who defied her husband's demand that she give up politics and come home, was locked in a tight struggle with Marvin Evenson in Minnesota's 9th Dist.

George Blackmore, CCC Highway west, who acted as chairman of the meeting, said that no formal resolutions were passed.

Among the speakers were City Manager Parkinson; Harmon Merwin, regional planning engineer for Franklin County and Edward J. Cunningham, of Washington C. H. Blackmore and Parkinson said that the two commissioners who opposed a recent petition for annexation of a 3.42-square-mile area to the city indicated to them that if the proposal were approved by voters of Union Township they would go along with the decision.

Ternstedt Plant Hurt by Walkout

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Production at General Motors Ternstedt plant was halted Tuesday night when third shift workers refused to cross picket lines which signaled the start of another wild-cat strike.

Members of Local 969 of the United Auto Workers Union struck the plant last month over grievances in retooling for the 1959 models.

Pickets told reporters the new walkout stems from local issues that have piled up since the Auto Workers contract with General Motors expired last May 29. They said these included production demands, time and work studies and the no contract issue.

The plant, which employs 4,500 workers, manufactures accessories for General Motors vehicles.

Council May Act On Annexation Issue Tonight

City's Growth Plan May Be Formulated At Regular Session

City Council may formally map a program of annexation to be placed on the November ballot when it meets in regular session at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Also on the agenda is the completion of formalities in connection with the employment of J. David Foell as city manager, replacing James F. Parkinson on who will retire on Oct. 1.

Foell, assistant to the city manager at Westerville, is expected to attend the meeting. Because of absences, Council was unable to pass the employment ordinance at its last meeting. Foell will begin his duties as assistant to Parkinson on Sept. 15, assuming the full responsibilities of the office two weeks later.

Council President Ben Norris said Wednesday morning that the details of Council's annexation plans have not been worked out, but that he "would not be surprised" if an agreement is reached Wednesday night.

BOTH NORRIS and Parkinson informally discussed the annexation issue with Commissioners Robert Cokerill and Ralph Minton Monday and indicated that Council would add the North Shore and Rosemont Court areas to a revised proposal.

Approximately 20 residents of Union Township met at the Hotel Washington Tuesday night for an informal exchange of opinions regarding territory transfers to the city.

George Blackmore, CCC Highway west, who acted as chairman of the meeting, said that no formal resolutions were passed.

Ike Asks Cut Of 2 Pct. in U. S. Payroll

WASHINGTON (AP)—Urging a Spartan economy, President Eisenhower is asking for a cut of at least 2 per cent this year in the number of federal employees.

Eisenhower's call for the payroll reduction was contained in a letter sent out Tuesday by Budget Director Maurice Stans to the heads of all agencies and departments.

The President said the cut is needed to offset a $50-million-dollar pay increase granted federal employees this year.

The federal civilian payroll totaled $2,361,432 in July.

In what might be another economy move, the Pentagon deferred tapping the money voted by Congress this year to build four extra missile-firing atomic submarines.

In summarizing planned ship-building projects during the present fiscal year, Secretary of the Navy Thomas Gates said Tuesday there would be no immediate announcement of plans to build the four subs.

Dr. Dwork also discussed the department's financing of its various programs, its fight against rabies in dogs and wildlife, special projects in the fields of chronic disease and health of the aged, tuberculosis X-rays and a method of detecting heart conditions by studying these X-rays and the department's work in nutrition among other things.

There have been four polio deaths in Ohio this year, and Dr. Dwork said none of the victims had been vaccinated.

Liz-Eddie-Debbie Triangle Like Keystone Kops Comedy

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Elizabeth Taylor-Eddie Fisher-Debbie Reynolds triangle today had as many angles—and chases—as a Keystone Kops comedy.

"We've had a misunderstanding," announced Eddie and Debbie the onetime-Hollywood ideal couple.

Two weeks ago Eddie went to New York on business about his forthcoming television show. He planned to stay only a week and told Debbie so.

She was at the airport at 6:30 a.m. one day last week but Eddie never showed. He didn't arrive until Tuesday, a week later.

During that extra week in New York, he and Liz, old friends, had night club dates. These were reported in headlines read by Debbie, who said she was shocked.

Liz was in New York en route to a vacation on the French Riviera. But she returned to Los Angeles Tuesday night. Asked why she didn't go to Europe, she answered: "I missed my plane."

As she arrived in Los Angeles,

Ohio Farmers Battling Birds

20,000 Rounds Fired By Sandusky Guns

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—Deadly warfare is being fought these days by Ohio farmers armed with shotguns and rifles. They're battling the ruinous redwing blackbird for the fall corn crop—and the blackbirds are winning.

To protect 200 acres of corn on the Sandusky County farm of Herb Wright near Vickery an estimated 20,000 rounds of ammunition were fired. Wright, his son, Herb Jr., and a neighbor have manned lookout towers bordering the cornfield for the past month.

Although expensive, Wright claims his method is effective. Other methods have failed:

A research operation — called Bye Bye Blackbird—is headed by Dr. Maurice L. Filtz, professor of zoology at Ohio State University. He has set up headquarters on the shore of Sandusky Bay.

At the end of his first season of intensive research Filtz says he has been unable to find a chink in the redwings' armor.

"It adapts to anything we throw at it," said Giltz glumly.

He estimated the redwings and their cousins, the grackles and cowbirds, may now outnumber the human population of Ohio—close to eight million.

12 GIs Killed In Alaska Crash

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Twelve servicemen were killed Tuesday when an Air Force C47 transport plane carrying 19 persons faltered at 800 feet on takeoff, dropped to the ground and burned.

The accident happened at Elmendorf Air Force Base, a Military Air Transport Service terminal. The twin-engine craft plunged to earth only 100 feet off Elmendorf's main runway.

Eyewitnesses said the C47, on a routine courier flight to isolated posts in the huge northern territory, was making what appeared to be a normal takeoff.

New Space Firing Series Is Planned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The newly established National Aeronautics and Space Administration has detailed plans to probe the skies with a whole series of earth satellites.

These are for the year ahead. For the more distant future NASA is already at work on projects to explore the moon and then move on to the planets.

NASA's program plans were disclosed for the first time at a packed-to-capacity dinner meeting of the Institute of the Aeronautical Sciences Tuesday night.

They were outlined by Edgar M. Cortright of the Lewis Flight Propulsion Laboratory at Cleveland, a major unit of the National

Businessmen Urged To Join GOP Support

CLEVELAND (AP)—The top of the state's Republican ticket for Nov. 4—Gov. C. William O'Neill and Sen. John W. Bricker—helped kickoff a Cuyahoga-Lake County GOP finance committee drive for campaign funds Tuesday night.

Senator Bricker said he appreciated "the necessity of having an adequately financed campaign" and added: "I hope this is one."

The governor told an audience of businessmen that prosperity of their business depended to a large extent on policies and practices of the state government and that Ohio has created a fine climate for business and industry.

"If you believe in these things, they ought to command your support," the governor continued.

He noted that Ohio took a 15 million dollar loss in sales tax 30 without increasing taxes or revenue in the year ended June ending a deficit. The year-end surplus, he said, was 38 million dollars.

In neighboring states of Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, state administrations either had to boost taxes or run a substantial deficit, O'Neill said.

Bricker said that higher taxes and "the political dictatorship of Walter Reuther" has caused Michigan to lose business to Ohio.

"We don't want a Walter Reuther controlling the politics of Ohio," Bricker asserted.

Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. NACA is in the process of space-age transformation into NASA.

Cortright said he believed that through the NASA programs man would:

1. Be placed in orbit around the earth within two years.

2. Land on the moon and return to earth, within 6 to 10 years.

3. Undertake exploration of Mars, but certainly not for at least 10 to 15 years.

Cortright described 16 space experiments which NASA has ready or can get under way within its first year of operation. Some can be combined, so that the actual number of launchings required has not been determined.

Seven experiments involve satellites weighing between 100 and 120 pounds, launched into orbits some 300 miles above the earth.

One satellite, used in geodetic measurements, would be equipped with a flashing light so that it could be sighted simultaneously from various tracking stations.

Two satellites would be specially designed to study the earth's cloud cover. Others would investigate aurora, air glow and primary particles which color the early morning skies.

A 100-pound satellite inflating to a diameter of 100 feet, for studies of communications, radar and air density, would be launched before next July. Some of the satellites in this series would carry living organisms — yeast, initially — into space.

Nine of the proposed experiments would involve satellites weighing more than 200 pounds, orbiting at more than 200 miles and serving as stabilized platforms.

New Demands Sounded for Sherm's Scalp

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—The summer White House today denied a published report that Sherman Adams, target of hot fire in the Bernard Goldfine case, has resigned as President Eisenhower's chief aide.

"It is just not true," press secretary James C. Hagerty said in comment on a resignation story in the Laconia (N. H.) Evening Citizen.

"There has been no resignation in any shape, form or manner submitted by Gov. Adams," Hagerty added.

The Laconia Citizen story said its information came "from a Washington officeholder, quite friendly to Gov. Adams" who asked that his identity not be disclosed.

The Hagerty denial came against the background of the Republican political disaster in the Maine elections Monday. There had been reports in Washington and elsewhere that Adams will leave soon as Eisenhower's chief aide because GOP candidates regard him as a major political liability.

The controversy over Adams flared last June when House committee investigators brought out that the wiry, white-haired presidential aide had accepted costly gifts and favors from Goldfine at a time when the Boston industrialist was in trouble before government regulatory agencies.

Figuring among the gifts and favors were a vicuna coat, an oriental rug and payment of about $2,000 worth of hotel bills for Adams and his family.

Adams acknowledged accepting gifts and favors but testified he never exerted any influence in getting in touch with federal agencies in connection with Goldfine's business troubles. Adams said he made only routine inquiries.

After Adams testified before a House committee, Eisenhower said Adams had been imprudent in relations with Goldfine but that he regarded his aide as a man of honesty and integrity. The President said, moreover:

"I need him."

Clamor for Adams' removal was renewed after the defeat of Republican Sen. Frederick G. Payne in the Maine election Monday. Payne also has told of accepting favors from Goldfine.

But despite the new Republican demands, Eisenhower was represented as feeling that the initiative for any change must come from Adams himself.

In this connection, high GOP officials were reported making a nationwide check on party reaction to the defeat of Republican candidates for the Senate, governorship and two House seats in Maine.

If this survey shows that a substantial number of candidates, state chairmen, finance committeemen and others believe the Adams-Payne association with Goldfine played an important part in the Maine results, Adams is likely to be confronted with this when he returns from a New England fishing trip.

New Teachers Guests of Lions

Talk on Hypnotism Given by Dr. Pfersick

Nine of the 11 new teachers in the Washington C. H. schools were guests of honor at the dinner meeting of the Lions Club in the County Club Tuesday night.

They not only had an opportunity to get acquainted with the 79 Lions and three other guests at the meeting, but also heard a talk on hypnotism by Dr. Charles Pfersick, a dentist who has made a study of this unusual practice.

Dr. Pfersick, third vice president of the club, presided at the meeting.

The new teachers introduced by Superintendent W. A. Smith of the city schools were Miss Beverly Baughn, second grade at Eastside; Mrs. Purle C. Hays, first grade at Rose Ave.; Robert Angus, principal at Sunnyside; Henry M. Best, principal at Rose Ave.; Charles Coburn, high school biology; John Hardin, high school principal; William Siemer, high school industrial arts; Robert Wientjes, principal at Cherry Hill and James Eugene Millard, high school basketball coach and American history teacher. The two unable to attend the meeting were Mrs. Ruth Domenico, sixth grade at Eastside, and Mrs. Mary Sheidter, third grade at Sunnyside.

Supt. Smith also outlined briefly some of the problems of assignment of pupils and shifting of school districts in moves to read the classrooms enrollments as evenly as possible in the city's six elementary schools.

GUESTS at the meeting were George R. K. Clark of Bucyrus with John E. Bailey; Herbert Hest of Harbor City, Mich.; with Dustin Gilton, and Dr. Frank King of Washington C. H. with Dr. Pfersick.

Tom Mark announced that the club's directors had completed arrangements to sponsor the "Rubinoff and His Violin" program in the high school auditorium on Nov. 5. Details, he said, will be given at a later meeting.

In his talk on hypnotism, Dr. Pfersick said that it was known to have been practiced as long ago as 4,000 B. C., but that it was brought to the forefront as an art or science by a man by the name of Mesmer in the 1700s. It was from Mesmer's practices that the common term of reference of "mesmerism" developed, he said.

Dr. Pfersick told the Lions that hypnotism cannot be defined, that it only can be described as a state of mind.

Hypnotism, he said, can be achieved through a person's voluntary submission to a series of carefully controlled suggestions which increase the subject's suggestibility to the place where specific suggestions are accepted.

He said only about 20 per cent of the people have what he described as "deep acceptability" to hypnotism and that others are "acceptable" to varying and smaller degrees.

Some of the misconceptions cited by Dr. Pfersick were: people think they will be unconscious; that they must surrender their will; that there is a weakening of the mind; a fear of talking and telling secrets and fear of not awakening.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average from 3 to 7 degrees below normal. Normal high 77 north to 80 south. Normal low 56-58. Cool Thursday, warmer Friday, then cooler again Saturday and Sunday. Rainfall will average two-tenths of an inch or less as scattered showers Friday night or Saturday and possibly late Monday.

Meet the Candidates Program in Doubt

Plans to hold the "Meet the Candidates" program here in October will depend on the recovery of Ohio's sixth district congressman James G. Polk, who entered the Bethesda Hospital near Washington D. C., for a minor operation this week.

William Stoughton, manager of the Chamber of Commerce here, said Chamber members and the Jaycees will attempt to schedule Rep. Polk and his Republican opponent Elmer S. Barrett, Chillicothe, for an appearance here in October. Jaycee President Robert Tice said other candidates for the Ohio General Assembly running from Fayette County and the senate district will also be contacted.

Polk told Ross County Democratic Chairman Gerald E. Radcliffe that he had entered the Maryland Hospital for a hemorrhoidectomy. He expressed regret that his scheduled political debate at Chillicothe next Wednesday with Barrett would have to be canceled.

Retail Merchants Plan for Future

Chairman Jack Daves told the Wednesday morning meeting of the retail merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce there is a good possibility of obtaining the Merchants Building on the Fairground for their exclusive use during the 1959 Fair if enough merchants are interested to fill it completely with displays.

Several promotion plans were discussed and the committee and Daves urged all merchants not at this meeting to attend the next one to help plan future store promotions in Washington C. H.

The committee commended Night Watchman Jim Wolfe for his job in patrolling the downtown area. Parking and other matters also were discussed.

Stock Mart Irregular in Ship Building

NEW YORK (AP) — Shipbuilding stocks and selected issues made gains in an irregular stock market early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Gains and losses of leading issues went from fractions to about a point.

The market was consolidating its gains after Tuesday's vigorous approach toward the record 1956 highs, Wall Street experts said.

Shipbuilding issues made gains following news of U.S. Navy plans to contract for 968 million dollars of contracts for shipbuilding in the current fiscal year.

Some of the high-quality stocks which have made big strides lately were nipped by profit taking. The industrial section was slightly lower but rails managed a slight edge to the upside.

Early afternoon turnover slackened to a rate about a million shares lower than Tuesday's 3,480,000-share total.

Bath Iron Works held the better of a two-point rise on the shipbuilding news.

Eastman Kodak dropped about two and Goodyear more than a point.

High-priced International Business Machines, however, advanced another three points, making a high for the year. Du Pont added a point.

Eastside Rezoning, Request Is 'Filed'

A petition by Eastside residents asking that the abandoned Eastside School property be zoned for residential purposes was filed by the Zoning Board of Appeals for reference in case the issue comes up again.

The board previously had refused to place it in a commercial zone before the property was put up for public auction. Bids at both auctions were rejected by the school board.

The property is now what is described as a "special" category, which permits its use for school purposes only. A member of the board said after the meeting that it will remain in this "special category" until a request is made for specific use.

The board approved an application of Trox Farrell to place a small building at the rear of a building at the corner of Clinton Ave. and Draper St. in a commercial zone. There were no protests to the application.

Although the board discussed a considerable length the question of sidewalks, along streets, especially those in new residential divisions, no action was taken. There have been indications that Council may consider in the near future an ordinance requiring sidewalks as a part of all new subdivisions.

A Deficiency Noticeable in Our Country

Frequently within the past few years rather widespread comment has been heard that most Americans are noticeably deficient in speaking any language other than our own.

The growing number of visiting students from other countries nearly all speak English well in addition to their own national language and perhaps show training in one or two other languages.

However, that is not all, a surprising number of natives in Europe, Asia and in South America, whom visitors from this country contact, are fluent in the English language and many also speak two or three other national tongues.

There has been a growing realization among people in our nation that most of our inhabitants fail to speak even one foreign language. This has caused many boards of education in this country to make some changes in their school requirements.

Probabilities are that this movement will become more widespread. Some are even introducing Russian which may become a real future factor because of the growth of the Soviet government's efforts to push its trade relations on a big scale into South America as well as throughout Asia, Africa and other distant lands.

Attention has been called to the fact that it is embarrassing to some of our schools to learn that there are no Russian text books for high schools published in this country. Last year, according to reports, fewer than 300 students in this country were seeking courses in the Russian language, although there are over a million and a half native Americans whose parents were born in Russia. Over 200 million people in the world speak Russian as their native language.

Aside from all that, however, there are amazingly few Americans who speak other languages which are in common use over the world. Maybe schools will recognize this problem, and more of them will do something about it.

Diet and Health Pregnancy Dangers In Heart Ailments

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

WOMEN who have heart disease must be especially careful and alert to possible danger signals during pregnancy. Therefore, even if your heart trouble is very mild, you should be under the care of a doctor throughout the pregnancy and afterward, too.

More Rest Needed

Naturally, you will need more rest than an expectant mother without heart disease. Make sure you get enough during and after the pregnancy. Sleep at least nine hours every night and take a nap daily.

While the amount of weight you can gain depends upon several factors, as a general rule you should not put on more than 15 to 20 pounds.

It's important to avoid becoming overweight and overtired. It's also important to avoid infection and tight clothing. Don't wear tight girdles, brassieres, garters or other garments that are uncomfortably snug.

Despite this advice, your heart occasionally might become overtaxed. When this happens your doctor will want to see you immediately.

Danger Signals

The American Heart Association lists the following danger signals and recommends that you tell your doctor at once if you:

1. Gain four or more pounds in a week.
2. Catch a cold or develop a sore throat.
3. Cough frequently, especially when you first lie down.
4. Have pain in the joints.
5. Have a fever.
6. Vomit.
7. Have a burning sensation when you pass urine.

Shortness of Breath

8. Suddenly become short of breath when doing ordinary things around the house, when climbing a few stairs, or when you first lie down. Even healthy women often become breathless with ordinary activity during the late stages of pregnancy. Whether this occurs early or late, if you have heart disease report it to your doctor promptly.

9. Find that your heart beats faster or you feel the need to take a deep breath while sitting or lying still. Again, this may be a perfectly normal reaction during late pregnancy, but tell your doctor about it anyway.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

E. S.: What are the most common recorded causes of death in the U.S.A.?

Answer: Heart disease and, second, cancer. Other causes are tuberculosis, pneumonia, diarrhea, kidney disturbances and accidents.

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's no wonder Secretary of State Dulles indicated the United States might make concessions to the Red Chinese if they're good boys. He has problems.

All of them can be telescoped into one big question:

How long can this country go on having crisis after crisis with the Chinese Communists without getting into war over the small Quemoy and Matsu islands near the China mainland?

This time American determination and strength may have chilled the Communists, particularly since they lack a navy, and perhaps lacked atomic bombs and enough planes to take a chance on war.

Next time, with help from the Soviet Union, they may risk the chance. It's a situation which can hardly go on indefinitely.

When the Reds drove Chiang Kai-shek off the mainland—to Formosa, 100 miles across the straits—his retreating troops grabbed Quemoy, three miles off the China coast, and the Matsus, 10 miles off the coast.

This country is pledged by treaty with Chiang to defend Formosa from Red attack. It must do that. But Congress left it to the President to decide whether it was necessary to fight for Quemoy and the Matsus to defend Formosa.

Chiang complicated things for the United States—although Dulles told a news conference Tuesday this country didn't object—by moving a third of his army from Formosa to Quemoy.

That put a tremendous potential obligation on the United States to defend Quemoy. Loss of a third of his army would truly make Chiang a paper tiger on Formosa where he could not hold out very long anyway without American help.

So, when the Reds bombed Quemoy and the Matsus, the United States got involved. Were those islands by themselves really necessary for the defense of Formosa? If they were, the President could order a fight to protect them. Dulles said: "What is involved here is not just two pieces of real estate—Quemoy and Matsu. Obviously, if that was all that was involved, there would be no basis for action on the part of the United States."

That seems to say that by themselves the islands are not worth defending and are not necessary for Formosa's defense. That raises a nice question all by itself:

Why then did the United States ever let Chiang put so many troops there, creating a situation which might require American intervention and war not only with Red China but perhaps even with the Soviet Union?

The United States took that chance by using units of the 7th Fleet to convoy supplies, particularly ammunition, to Chiang's bombarded forces on Quemoy.

Dulles said what is involved is the whole position of the "free world in the western Pacific." He explained that: "If you fall back from advanced positions and indicate to an aggressor that you have no will to stand, then your position becomes weaker, your allies lose confidence."

But if Chiang hadn't sent his troops to the islands, the Reds could have taken them. Thus Chiang's sending his troops to Quemoy set in motion a whole series of events, actual and possible, which created this situation:

While Quemoy and the Matsus were not worth defending themselves—if this is a proper interpretation of what Dulles was saying—the United States couldn't yield the islands to the Reds under threat of force.

But so long as Chiang holds those islands, it seems sure there will be a repetition of this crisis which was a repetition—a replica, Dulles called it—of a similar crisis three years ago.

Yet, as time passes and Red Chinese strength grows in weapons and planes, this country may become increasingly unwilling to risk war to defend the small islands.

What's the answer? Dulles indicated concessions might be made to the Reds if they stopped talking about using force to take the islands. What concessions? Maybe this country will persuade Chiang to pull back his troops after a proper interval and let the Reds have Quemoy and the Matsus.

Chiang could hardly refuse if the United States told him that's what it wanted. He's utterly dependent on the United States for his existence.

'You Auto Buy' Now Campaign Called Success

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the year's big merchandising events, the "You Auto Buy Now" campaign, stirred up the sale of automobiles and gave the over-all economy a shot in the arm, the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. said today.

Reporting on the campaign of last April and May, the bureau said it checked with 214 chambers of commerce providing information on results.

"Ninety three per cent called the campaign successful; only six, or less than 3 per cent, reported failure," said the bureau.

The drive got its start in Cleveland and spread to about 300 other cities.

The bureau also stated that R. L. Polk & Co. registration figures showed that auto registrations in April and May were up 26.3 per cent over February-March in a sample of "auto buy" cities. A similar comparison for the U.S. as a whole showed registrations up only 13.6 per cent.

Thoughts on 'After 45'

NEW YORK (AP)—Some young uncaught horse thief in the office recently pasted a motto on my typewriter.

It says: "God has a place for the older person whose heart has remained sweet and strong."

I had to laugh. The young fellow who pasted this message was gently twitting me about my advanced age. The newspaper game has always been regarded as a young man's game—just as war is. Anyone over 45 in it gradually assumes the status of a dinosaur, and is often asked questions such as, "What was life really like in the old days?"

This is always a bit unnerving to one who—let's face it—can summon up a clearer mental picture of Clara Bow than of Brigitte Bardot.

At 40, I would have bitterly resented being teasingly classified as an "older person." But after 45 one accepts it, not as a taunt, but an accolade.

The envy of youth one has at 40 gives way to one of restrained pity. One feels sorry for the very young. After all, what have they really done to deserve all the turbulent woes that go with lack of age?

One gets a trifle smug after 45. One has solved so many of life's more pressing problems.

At 25 you wonder what is happening to your hair. After 45 you know what happened to it. It went.

At 25, if you have a beautiful wife, you are always afraid some handsome fellow will steal her away. After 45, you know you couldn't even pay anybody to kidnap her. She's safely yours.

At 25, you fret and fume over whether you'll be promoted to a better job. After 45, you have no such worries. You know the boss isn't likely either to give you much more money or much more responsibility—unless he suddenly goes senile himself.

At 25, your children are a cramping burden, who keep you from doing things you'd like to do. After 45, doing things for your grandchildren becomes one of life's greatest pleasures. For some reason a man's grandchildren always seem smarter and better than his children did.

At 25, a fellow breaks his back buying life insurance. After 45, you enjoy sitting back and annoying your heirs, who must wait to collect.

At 25, you begin paying the government through the nose. After 45, you begin looking forward to the day when the government will be forced to start dishing some of it back.

At 25, you are confused and don't know where you're going. After 45, you know at least where you've been—and don't have to go again.

Yes, indeed, God does have "a place for the older person whose heart has remained sweet and strong." It can be a right nice place—and any young fellow, if he holds on long enough and plays his cards right, can get there too.

Distinguished Tax Thieves

A justifiable complaint against congressional committees is that they rarely complete a task which they set out to do.

Either the committee runs out of money or interest or the membership changes, or perhaps the particular subject has ceased to be of public interest.

For instance, the investigation of Mr. Goldfine was a design to embarrass Sherman Adams and to force his resignation. It had nothing to do with taxes. The investigator was John Fox who had had financial dealings with Goldfine and who disliked him.

During this investigation, it was discovered that over a number of years, Goldfine withdrew cash—either in the form of cash or in the form of a shoe box or in his vest pocket—that is his prerogative.

Nevertheless, it ought to be of some interest to the Internal Revenue Service of the Treasury which will bother an ordinary citizen if he is a few dollars out of line, what this unorthodox procedure is, how it benefits the man who pursues it, what it does for him tax-wise. Is it better than just holding on to a great deal of cash?

So far as the public knows the congressional investigation of Goldfine and his checks has never been completed. He never explained why he withdrew the checks; he never explained why they remained uncashed. This form of check is as good as cash money, only a small number of them do not take as much room as the amount of cash they represent.

The entire course of the McClellan investigation shows that certain labor leaders steal cash money. This money disappears, although the amounts are huge. Obviously, there is some kind of split up.

Nevertheless, there is considerable cash on hand that is taken out of circulation and that must get back into circulation if it is to have any value to those who have it. It has to be invested in stocks or real estate or enterprises and it has to be done in such manner that the investments are legitimate.

This undoubtedly requires the assistance of an accountant and a lawyer and needs careful handling. The money is probably taken in a briefcase or a suitcase to Switzerland.

Briggs-Thompson Vows Repeated In Lovely Home Wedding Rites

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD H. THOMPSON

Miss Ann Elizabeth Briggs and Mr. Harold H. Thompson were united in marriage Sunday afternoon in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Briggs, Clemens Rd., New Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Thompson of 332 Eastern Ave., Washington C. H., are the parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Glenn Robinson, minister of the New Holland Methodist Church, performed the double-ring ceremony at 1:30 p. m. before a mantel adorned with a lovely arrangement of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Candelabra and palms were placed in front of the mantel.

Preceding the ceremony a half-hour program of traditional nuptial music was presented by Master Richard Vincent, soloist, and Mrs. Mary Vincent, pianist, both of Bloomingburg.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was wearing a waltz-length gown of white nylon lace designed with a scooped neckline, basque bodice and three-quarter-length sleeves. The very bouffant skirt of matching lace, worn over an old fashion hoop, was made of tulle ruffles. Her elbow-length veil of white illusion was attached to a closed crown of iridescent sequins. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with white feathered carnations centered with a purple, throat-tied white orchid.

Miss Madeline McCrea served as maid of honor and Miss Judy Osterle as the bridesmaid. They were attired in identical gowns of blue nylon over matching taffeta. The gowns, which were studded with white flowers, were designed with boat necklines and were highlighted with blue taffeta cummerbunds. They carried colonial bouquets of white pom poms tied with blue satin ribbon.

Mr. William Gordon of Washington C. H. was Mr. Thompson's best man. Ushers were Mr. Robert Thompson of Findlay, brother of the groom, and Mr. Harry Wolfe of Washington C. H.

Mrs. Briggs chose for her daughter's wedding an afternoon-length gown of navy blue crepe. With this she wore navy blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Thompson, mother of the groom, was wearing a beige brocade cotton afternoon-length gown with which she combined beige and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

A reception was held after the exchange of vows.

A lovely arrangement of white gladioli and pom poms decorated the buffet. Huckleberry and white pom pom chrysanthemums were placed at the base of the punch bowl and tiered wedding cake which adorned the bride's table.

Senior hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Percy May, Mrs. Dwight Turner, both of New Holland; Mrs. Willard Peterson, Frankfort, and Mrs. Orville Weidinger of Washington C. H.

Serving as junior hostesses were Mrs. David Noble, Williamsport; Mrs. Lloyd Hill, Chillicothe; Miss Patricia Morrissey, Reading, Ohio; Miss Portia Donohoe, Atlanta; Miss Linda Curry, Columbus; and the Misses Georgia Clifton, Jill Echard, Beverly Kirk, Judy Jacobs, Beverly Yeoman and Virginia Bryant, and Mrs. Robert Helsel, all of New Holland.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the new Mrs. Thompson was wearing a black cashmere weave suit with black and white accessories. The orchid

Plans for a youth rally at the Maple Grove Church for the MYF groups in all the churches also were outlined. The rally was tentative set for Nov. 1 and 2. Other churches in this charge are New Martinsburg, Good Hope and Sugar Grove, but invitations probably will be extended to all other Methodist Churches in the county.

A roller skating party at Roller Haven on Sept. 8 also was planned during the business session.

Donna Warner led the devotions at the Monday night meeting and also read "What Not To Do at a Meeting."

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

So far as I know the Courthouse bell has been sounded comparatively few times with the special hammer which is separate from the regular striking hammer.

In times of disaster, or when it has been necessary to summon the local National Guard Company (which has been Company M as long as I recall) the "riot call" was sounded on the Courthouse bell by using the special hammer to ring the bell two or three dozen times in quick succession.

When the "riot call" was sounded, I have watched members of the militia company come in from all directions, and those who could not hear the clang! clang! clang! of the Courthouse bell were notified by telephone or special messenger as quickly as possible.

I heard the bell sounded once, when William Jennings Bryan was here to speak for the "drys" during the memorable nationwide campaign many years ago. But I know of only a few other times when the clanging bell aroused the populace to the fact that momentous things were happening.

During the closing months of the first World War when big events were taking place, such as the Americans wiping out the great St. Mihiel salient on the Western Front in France, the Courthouse bell aroused the people to the fact.

We here at the Record - Herald (It was the Daily Herald in those days) had arranged with the Fayette County War Council and the county commissioners to sound the "riot call" when the big news forecasting end of the war, was received by Associated Press at the Herald office.

More than once I climbed up the long flights of stairs to the clock tower to sound the bell after I had posted a notice on the Herald bulletin board which was on the front of the Gossard Jewelry Store.

Within minutes, crowds were gathering about the board. Those were stirring days, and were happening just 40 years ago at this time.

RECALLS TORNADO

Wilbur A. Hyer, 745 Dayton Ave., was right in the middle of the big tornado which swept Fayette County and this city Sept. 8, 1895. He escaped unhurt although all of his clothing was torn from his body. Wilbur, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hyer, and his brother, Harry lived in a house on the north side of U. S. 22, west, near the railroad, north of the present Drive-In Theater.

Their home was completely demolished yet all members of the family escaped serious injury.

In fact, Harry, then a baby about one year old, slept through the whole storm and was found on the ground in one corner of the yard. He was still sound asleep at though he had been carried there by the wind.

Wilbur was found standing in the yard, dazed but unhurt. He was located by flashes of lightning.

The Hyer home was picked up by the twister and as it was being carried across the yard, the bottom struck a big stump. The floor was torn out thus saving the lives of the occupants.

A well in the dooryard was found minus its cover and in the well was the top of the wooden pump. But the remainder of the pump was never found.

That was one of the many freaks of the famous "Cyclone" which killed six people and injured many others as it whipped across the city county and city 73 years ago.

CHERRY TREE BLOOMING

It is about the time of year when by some freak of nature, fruit trees show a few blossoms and the first one reported this year is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Reeves 1014 S. Hinde St., where two large blossoms have appeared on a cherry tree. More may follow.

As result of a defective trunk, the tree has already shed nearly all of its leaves, and the one twig with the twin blossoms is one of the few still retaining part of the leaves.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Wheat acreage was to be one-half to two-thirds normal, and farmers plan to sow early.

A farm house owned by E. C. Clough, Waterloo Rd., and occupied by tenants, was destroyed by fire, said to have been started when someone tried to burn huckleberries from one corner of the house.

A rabid dog owned by a resident of Washington Ave., bit other dogs before it was killed.

Harry V. Rodgers, former county recorder, died at 86 on his farm near Good Hope.

An unknown umbrella mender was fatally injured by a "hit and run" driver on the CCC Highway a short distance west of the city.

Fayette County Co-ops were leading all others in Ohio in the amount of livestock shipped.

Council passed a resolution to submit a levy proposal to citizens to raise funds to pay outstanding bonded indebtedness falling due.

Work of restoring the Seip Mound near Bainbridge was under way. Over 150 burials had been made in the mound and 99 crematory altars were found when the big mound was excavated.

James H. Allen, retired farmer, died at 77.

The W. A. Linkhart grain elevator at Sabina was destroyed by fire. A bursted water main resulted in the town being without water service until repairs could be made.

Crater-shaped buffalo wallows still scar the plains and prairies of the American west. Formed when 60 million bison roamed the continent, the wallows provided the animals with dust baths in dry weather and mud baths when it rained. Some wallows grew to miles length.

Buyers Descending Upon Manhattan

NEW YORK (AP)—Hotel space in mid-Manhattan is at a premium this week. It's harder than ever to get tickets to the more popular Broadway shows. The reason: An unusually heavy invasion of buyers from out-of-town department and specialty stores.

These are the busy folk who visit the big town at certain times of the year to stock up on merchandise—mostly apparel—for the stores they represent back home.

Veteran observers in New York's garment center say the influx of buyers during the past two days has been nothing short of phenomenal. It promises to shatter all records for a post-Labor Day week.

In the little town of Jerez, Spain, two of the best-remembered names are Benjamin Franklin and Washington Irving. These two famed Americans were among the first steady customers in the U. S. for the sherry produced by Jerez.

Industrial Development Agency Said Ohio Need

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Michael V. DiSalle, Democratic nominee for governor, told an audience of 200 at a Temple of Israel Men's Club dinner Tuesday night Ohio needs a state department of industrial development. A central organization is needed, DiSalle said, to coordinate efforts of more than 100 separate development groups and keep them from working against one another in trying to attract new industries.

Pen Escapee Captured in Dayton Fight

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A 1955 escapee from the Arkansas State Penitentiary is being held in the city jail here today. He was captured Tuesday in a gun battle through a residential section with four FBI agents.

During the pursuit the escapee, Gordon Henderson, 36, of Jeff. Ky. grabbed 14-year-old Bob Himes for a shield but the boy twisted free and was not injured.

E. D. Mason, FBI agent for the area, said he and the other agents, acting on a tip spotted Henderson and Mrs. Beulah Bridgetorth, 36,

Most Popular Seers Predict Living Cost Cut

Bumper Crops Hinted
Background for Dip

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Most cheering of all of today's soothsayers are those who are predicting easier living ahead.

This comes, oddly enough, at the same time so many are talking up industrial recovery and increased consumer spending.
Many persons were perplexed that the cost of living kept rising during the recession when plants were standing idle, production and sales were falling and surpluses, not shortages, were the big problem.

Now with industry all set for a hoped-for rise in activity, the talk is that industrial prices may rise very little if at all, and that in other lines — chiefly foods — the chances are good for better days for the family pocketbook.

Since food stands high on every one's budget, the report of bumper crops is good news indeed. It means that foodstuffs should ease rather than rise — and, importantly, that an abundance of foodstuffs foretells a future increase in the number of meat animals, and an easing of prices in that vital part of the cost of living.

Also, government price supports for some crops are being lowered, along with restrictions on production — a boon to city dwellers at least.

There are even signs that the long rise in the cost of services may be slowing down — in most fields, that is, except transportation.

The case for hope that a pickup in industrial activity and the accompanying rise in personal incomes may not kick off much of a rise in industrial materials or even in manufacturing end products is based on two beliefs:

1. That the recovery will be moderate and slow paced;
2. That the big surpluses still overhanging the market will have to be worked off first and that the excess production capacity in most industries will keep competition keen for some time to come.

It will be a struggle in most plants to hold down rising operating costs, particularly as wage scales continue to fatten. But if competition remains keen, passing along such rising costs in the form of higher prices will be a problem, too.

In time consumers and industry could use up the surpluses and get all the capacity into production. But until then there's hope that the cost of living can be held in line.

Stevenson Terms U.S. Foreign Policy As Clumsy, Erratic

NEW YORK (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson, abroad since June, returned Tuesday with new criticism of U.S. foreign policy.

Stevenson, Democratic candidate for president in 1952 and 1956, said the nation's conduct had been "clumsy, erratic and self-righteous" in recent years.

He termed the Far Eastern situation very dangerous but expressed hope the Chinese Communists would not risk war.

"Fortunately," he said at a news conference "they seem willing to negotiate this time and I hope the talks will proceed promptly."

"I suggest that faith in United States strength and determination is the only deterrent to Chinese aspiration in Asia and the defense of Formosa is a solemn United States obligation," he said. "Opinions cannot differ that the United States can and must fulfill its commitments."

Scales which not only weigh out but mix ingredients for a batch of cookies, or explosives or cement have been developed.

Political Leader Guest of Rotarians

Sen. Fess Defends Right-to-Work-Act

There was no pulling of punches by State Sen. Lowell Fess of the 5th-6th Ohio district, who was the principal speaker at Tuesday's Rotary Club meeting at the Country Club.

In his defense of the "Right-to-Work" movement for passage of a state constitutional amendment by a vote of the people of Ohio at next November's election (which would bring legislation to protect a job holder who does not desire to be a member of a union) Fess cited numerous reasons why he believes this amendment should muster a decisive favorable vote.

The speaker was presented by Ben Norris, of the September program committee, who recounted the many years Sen. Fess has given to this district as a political leader and mentioned that he had attained his acumen from his nationally known father, former U. S.
Sen. S. D. Fess long a resident of Greene county.

FESS DECLARED that for many years he has been an advocate of the "right-to-work" idea and has in past years, presented several bills in the Ohio General Assembly toward that objective. The Ohio Legislature never passed them, he said, because of pressure brought to bear by Union lobbyists.

He recalled that 18 states in the nation have "Right-to-Work" laws now and six other states, including Ohio, will vote on this issue at the November election.

He also stated that the strength of unions for actual benefit of workers had in no way diminished in any of the states in which this law was in operation; that union membership has increased in each state, work production is higher and wages better than ever before.

IN HIS ARGUMENTS in behalf of the proposed amendment Sen. Fess who is a resident of Yellow Springs, made the following statements:

"Freedom today is menaced by those leaders of organized labor who have renounced their historic responsibility to their union members and established political power as the total objective of their organizations.

"Like federal law, state right-towork laws recognize and protect an employee's right to join with other employees for the purpose of collective bargaining. Unlike federal law, however, the state laws recognize and protect his right to choose which if any labor organization he wishes to join.

"If an individual worker can no longer ear a living except by pledging his support to a union he becomes the subject of a private group. This is to put it bluntly, government without the consent of the governed.

"Good organizations are made good and kept good by vigilance and effective strength on the part of the membership. Compulsory membership, especially when tied to an individual's livelihood, reverses this process and gives great power to the few instead of resting in the many.

"A "yes" vote on the right-towork amendment gives every man and woman in Ohio freedom to join or not to join a labor union; gives every man and woman in Ohio freedom to pay or not to pay money to a labor union; prohibits compulsory union shop agreements between employers and labor officials under which an employee must pay union dues or be fired.

"IT ALSO MAKES unions voluntary organizations controlled by members free to act, investigate or resign the same as in religious, farm, political and other organizations. It also requires union organizers to secure members on the basis of services performed rather than compulsion; it helps correct such abuses of power by some professional union officials as have be-established Rotary custom of many years when, during school months, two senior students from the Wash-the club. On this occasion Andre Metais presented Richard Anthony and James Kirk.

Birthday greetings were sung for Dr. Jack Persinger, Paul Arth-made contributions to the Club's youth fund.

Visiting Rotarians were Roy Van-

Other guests were: Richard Hall

Pirate Strategy Yields 2-Game Sweep over Giants

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A flash of genius hit Manager Danny Murtaugh, Ted Kluszewski hit the ball and the Pittsburgh Pirates hit the San Francisco Giants for a 4-2 game lead in their run for the runner-up spot in the National League.

That's how the Bucs made off with a two-game sweep over the Giants Tuesday night. They won 2-1 on Murtaugh's handy hunch after winning 4-3 in the completion of a game left hanging since July 27 by Pennsylvania's Sunday curfew.

Bill Mazeroski led off the nightcap ninth with a double for the Pirates. Dick Groat drew an intentional walk, and Billy Hall was batting with an 0-1 count when Murtaugh got the flash.

Kluszewski took Hall's place and broke the 1-1 tie with a single.

The Pirates cut Milwaukee's lead to 6-5 games, but the Braves reduced their magic number to nine en route to their second straight pennant by beating Cincinnati 3-2. St. Louis beat the Chicago Cubs 8-7. Philadelphia ended its losing string at seven by beating Los Angeles 4-3 after a 6-2 success in the completion of another July 27 game.

Frank Thomas, who had hit a two-run homer for a 3-3 tie before the curfew sounded in Pittsburgh six weeks ago, drove in the winning run with a single as play resumed in the eighth inning.

The Giants tied the regularly scheduled game against rookie George Witt in the sixth on a two-out walk to Willie Mays, who stole second, and Orlando Cepeda's double. Elroy Face (5-2) was the winner, in relief, getting pinch hitter Bill White for the final out with the bases loaded. Gordon Jones (2-1) lost it in relief.

Gene Freese hit a solo homer and Eddie Kasko socked his first grand slam for the Cardinals, who won on Gene Green's double and a single by Irv Noren in the eighth inning. Ernie Banks hit his 45th homer—breaking his own major league record for shortstops—and Dale Long is 17th for the Cubs. Jim Brosnan (11-8) was the winner in relief of Sam Jones. Don Elston (7-8) lost it in relief.

Wally Post's sixth career grand slam won the July 27 completion for the Phils and reliever Jim Hearn (5-3). It came on the second pitch by reliever Clem Labine. Fred Kipp (6-5) was the loser. Harry Anderson's double three walks and two wild pitches gave the Phils a winning three-run sixth in the regularly scheduled game.

Louise Koutaf (10-10) and reliever Johnny Klippstein struck out 12 while Ray Semproch, winner Jack Sanford (9-12) and Jack Meyer of the Phils fanned 11. That tied the modern NL record (23) for strikeouts by both clubs in a nine-inning game.

Johnny Callison, the kid outfielder who was reluctantly returned to the minors for seasoning last spring, has come back battling for the Chicago White Sox in their second-place showdown with Boston in the American League.

Callison, 19, was recalled Tuesday from Indianapolis, where he led the American Assn with 29 home runs. A few hours later he batted 3-for-3 as the White Sox beat Boston 4-1 behind the three-hit pitching of Early Wynn.

Callison, playing only his second year of pro ball in a jump from Class C, drove home the tying run with a double and scored on Wynn's winning single in a three-run sixth inning. The he doubled and scored again in the eighth.

The White Sox victory postponed New York's inevitable pennant clinching. Cleveland rapped the Yankees 9-2 and the Indians were still at it when rain stopped the game in an eight-run fifth inning. Detroit defeated Washington 7-1 on Jim Bunning's three-hitter, and Kansas City socked five home runs, three by Preston Ward, in an 8-6 victory over Baltimore.

Big Newk Fails To Hold Edge In Last Frame

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Don Newcombe looked like the splendid finger of old for eight innings Tuesday night.

His arm miseries are healed, his new reverse sinker was working crisply, he had scored the run ahead and he was giving the world champion Milwaukee Braves a bad time on seven hits.

Then everything crumbled. His pitching stuff became dulled. He lost his lead. Milwaukee won, 3-2, off reliever Brooks Lawrence.

Disaster struck in the Milwaukee half of the eighth. Newcombe suddenly came apart, giving up successive singles to Ed Mathews, Hank Aaron and Frank Torre, to drive in the tying run. After Andy Pafko walked, Newcombe was replaced by Lawrence, who proceeded to get Bill Bruton on a pop and Del Crandall, who batted for Del Rice, on a foul.

Then Wes Covington batted for Rush and hit a routine grounder toward first. George Crowe was unable to get his glove on it as it rolled between his legs into right field. Aaron scored on the error. The loss was Newcombe's 11th to 7 wins, while Bob Rush picked up his 8th win from 6 losses.

Season Is Ended For Ruth League Postponed to Sept. 20

Postponed Games Will Not Be Played

After a meeting of league officials, play has finally been called off in the Fayette Babe Ruth League. The boys haven't played any baseball for a week.

Carl Wilt, secretary of the league, explained that there is no championship or trophy awarded. He added that the boys are playing because they like to and they want to.

The league was expanded this third year to eight teams when New Holland joined. The home ball park is at Roszmann Field on the Dayton Rd.

Lights have been put up at Roszmann Field, but they are not yet connected. Next year, league officials expect more boys will be able to play Babe Ruth ball because, by then, two games a night can be held.

Each team was supposed to have played 21 games this summer. New Holland only got 19 games played.

One game between the Seals and Girtens ended in a tie and was never finished.

Won and lost records of the teams are:

New Holland, 2 and 17; Bloomingtonburg, 8 and 13; Jeffersonville, 9 and 12; Good Hope, 13 and 8; Seals, 13 and 7 and one tie; Girtens, 15 and 5 and one tie; Brays, 15 and 6; and Medics, 9 and 12.

Boosters To Meet At Field House

A regular meeting of the Washington C. H. Football Boosters Club will be held Wednesday night at the Gardner Park field house. It will begin at 8 p. m.

Last week's WHS football preview will be discussed and also the opening game with Logan Friday night.

Pony League Openers Postponed to Sept. 20

The opening game of the Pony Football League has been postponed for a week in order to give the boys more time to learn the fundamentals of the game.

This was decided at a meeting of Pony League officials and coaches Tuesday night at Gardner Park field house. Instead of starting next Saturday night, the first game will be on Sept. 20.

The coaches said they just have not had enough time to teach the boys the rules and the fundamentals of the game. Practice was started only last week and many of the boys are playing organized football for the first time.

Also at the meeting, it was decided that each team is to stick to the 6-2 and 6-3 defense formations with variations. This means, that when the team originally sets up its defense, it must have six players on the line. However, as soon as the ball is snapped, one may drop back.

THE ROSTER of players was checked against each individual's physical examination papers. Before the boy can play, he has to have a physical and his parents permission in writing. It was reported that most of the permission slips and physical records have been turned in.

A discussion of the financial end of the League was held and it was decided to sell donation tickets for $1 each, in order to support the League. Each coach was given 25 tickets to sell.

A fund drive will be held by each team on Sept. 13 and 20 on the downtown streets in Washington C. H. Donation tickets will be sold then. Money is needed for the league as $1,500 worth of equipment was purchased and also insurance amounting to $325.

PLANS were made to sell programs and refreshments at the games. There is no admission charge.

Editt Mitchell, president of the league, announced that if rural boys want to play in the league, they will be governed by the same rules as the city boys. Each rural player must express his desire to play, take a physical and get his parents' permission. He must state all this in a letter to Mitchell at 621 Church St.

Each player has to furnish his own transportation to and from practices which are held each evening between 4:30 and 6 p. m., either at Gardner Park practice field or Community Park.

Another meeting of the league has been called for 7:30 p. m. next Tuesday in the field house. Sponsors of the five teams are requested to be present.

The first games on Sept. 20 will have the Big Boys playing the Feeders and the Marksmen playing the Splinters. The Mixers drew the opening game bye.

Fish and Game Assn. Meets Thursday Night

Plans for a trap and target shoot for hams and merchandise next Sunday will be rounded into shape at Thursday night's meeting of the Fayette County Fish and Game Assn. at the lodge on Rattlesnake Creek.

The shoot, open to the public, will be in two divisions—one using the conventional traps and the other using the bullseye-type stationary targets.

Hubert Fernezu, club president, will conduct the Thursday night meeting.

At the close, there will be a fish fry for the customary light lunch and Dave Krupla, the county game protector, will show a fishing film entitled, "The Lake Erie Story."

Finsterwald Eyed In Denver Open

DENVER (AP)—The 72-hole Denver Centennial Open golf tournament begins Thursday.

Top money in the $20,000 event—first major pro tournament here in 10 years—is $2,800.

The field of 107 shotmakers, 87 pros and 20 amateurs, is led by Dow Finsterwald, PGA champion from Tequesta, Fla., and Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., the leading money winner with $39,827 for the year.

City Asks Bids For New Pumper

Last Such Purchase Made Nine Years Ago

Sealed bids for a new 1,000-gallon triple combination pumper for the Washington C. H. Fire Department will be received until noon on Sept. 30 at City Hall, according to City Manager James F. Parkinson.

This will be the first factory built pumper the city has purchased since 1949, when the present pumper and ladder truck was delivered.

The new pumper will cost around $25,000 with equipment, Parkinson said. Most of the money for it will come from current revenues, plus money that has been accumulated in the pumper fund.

Parkinson said the purchase can be completed without the issuance of any bonds.

Other equipment at the Fire Department includes the new rural pumper which was put into service in early 1956. The body for this one was built in Columbus and firemen here did most of the work of assembling it. Cost was around $8,000.

The department also has a 750-gallon Ahrens-Fox triple combination pumper and ladder truck, an auxiliary rural tanker and the chief's car.

Night Drill To Be Held by WHS Band

Practice for the Washington C. H. High School marching band has been scheduled for Wednesday night under the lights at Gardner Park beginning at 7:30.

The band, according to Director Robert Neumann, will work out last minute details for the show it will put on at the WHS - Logan football opener at Logan Friday night.

All 104 members of the band will make the trip to Logan. They will leave from Gardner Park field house in three school buses at 5:30 p. m. All are going by bus.

Neumann announced that the show for the halftime will be "Summer Vacation." A row boat in rain, will be formed and the song "Canadian Sunset," will be played with the majorettes performing an Indian dance.

The drummers will be featured during the show when the band plays "Rock Around the Clock." Other numbers will also be performed along with the usual "W" for the playing of the WHS alma mater.

Miami Trace School Enrollment Is 3,118

Total enrollment in the Miami Trace District rural schools is 3,118, County Superintendent W. J. Hilly disclosed Wednesday after a recheck of attendance records.

This is 348 pupils more than last year, with addition of the New Holland district to the Miami Trace system accounting for 282 of that number.

The actual number of students living in the district is approximately 3,245 counting 106 tuition pupils who attend Greenfield, Sabina, Leesburg and Simon Kenton (Clinton County) schools and 21 high school students who are enrolled at Washington C. H., also on a voluntary tuition basis. There are 2,442 elementary (1-8) pupils in Miami Trace schools.

Eighty-four students were enrolled outside the county last year.

ENROLLMENTS IN the five rural high schools are as follows: Bloomingsburg 126; Jeffersonville 349; Madison Mills 59; New Holland 73 and Good Hope 69. This is a total of 676 enrolled in Miami Trace high schools or a total of 803 resident high school students attending schools somewhere.

Most serious high school overcrowding is at Good Hope Wayne, with Jeffersonville presenting a serious problem this year and a more critical one next year, the county superintendent said.

The situation throughout the district is a difficult one, and will remain that way until the proposed new high school at Eber can be built, he added.

MIAMI TRACE enrollments are reported as follows: Bloomingsburg 288; Bookwaiter (three grades) 153; Chaffin 137; Eber 180; Jasper (Milledgeville) 179; Jeffersonville 317; Madison Mills 195; Marion 111; New Holland 209; Olive 141; Staunton 134; Good Hope Wayne 246; Wilson 152.

A similar affair in June attracted a large crowd.

The Glen Karns Farms, Sharon, Ohio, will supply and prepare the chickens. The firm has its own refrigerated truck and barbecue equipment, while members of the local committee will furnish the "trimmings", including beans, slaw, dessert and coffee.

Tickets are available from White Shrine members or may be purchased at the Fairgrounds.

Mrs. Charles Hurr is high priestess of the White Shrine group here. Roy Smith is finance chairman for the barbecue project.

Five WCH Bankers To Attend Meeting

Five Washington C. H. bank officers will be among more than 300 at the annual meeting of Group Four of the Ohio Bankers Assn. at the Elks Club in Chillicothe Thursday.

Robert W. Tice, assistant cashier at First National Bank, is a member of the executive committee of the group. Robert B. Will, president of the Vinton County National Bank, McArthur, is the chairman.

Features of the afternoon and evening program will include a discussion on current and prospective legislative problems, the progress of a national advertising program for commercial banking and public relations ideas.

Attending from First National Bank will be J. Roush Burton, president; Albert R. Bryant, vice president; J. W. Wallace, assistant cashier; David Six, loan teller; Colin C. Campbell and Willard H. Perrill, directors; and Tice. No officers at the Washington Savings Bank will attend the meeting, since several bank employees are on vacation.
